GRAND CONCERT AT TYRONE

Clean and Cheery Drama Given Behind Electric Footlights.

Win One Concert held in the Sons' Hall on Saturday evening will be remembered with pleasure by those who were so fortunate as to be present. The artistic staging was made fragrant with flowers and bright with the electric lighting system made possible through the scientific ingenuity of Mr. Harold Clemens. The play was most acceptable—a clean, cheery drama put on by capable actors, including in the cast of characters; Messrs. Russel Wright, Harold Clemens, Clarence Woodley, Misses Maud Hodgson, Mary Brightwell and Hazel Werry, assisted by Miss Evelyn Brent and Mr. Will S. Staples in song. Other features were a drill by twelve young ladies in Grecian costume accompanied by the orchestra was prettily performed; piano duets by Misses Florence and Mary Gardiner and Misses Mary Brightwell and Beatrice Bigelow, which were nicely rendered. Suitable addresses were given by the chairman, S. S. Supt., Mr. A. W. Annis, and Rev. S. Supt., Mr. A. W. Annis, and Rev. W. T. Wickett all of them being much appreciated by the audience. At the close Miss Florence Gardiner presented Miss Bessie Mullin with a pretty bouquet of daffodils as a slight appreciation for her untiring efforts in training the lads and lasses for the drama and drill. Where all did so splendidly it would be an act of supererogation to individualize or make invidious distinction by specializing in personal commendation of any individual contributor or participant.

IN MEMORIAM.

Lines to my darling baby Frederick Geo. Found, who was born Oct. 4th., 1920, and died October 9th., 1920.

He came to us in our sorrow
Straight from the courts above,
Like a gleam of Heaven's sunshine—
Sweet messenger of God's love.

Five short sweet days he lingered—
And Oh! we loved him so!
What it meant to us to love him,
Only our aching hearts can know.

O, for a touch of the clinging fingers
Just to hold him once more in my arms!
But he is safe in the good Shepherd's keeping.

And from this world's sin and alarms.
Mother and Brothers.
