FATAL ACCIDENT NEAR GRANTON.—On Monday 12th May, Mr. Perry, who lives a few miles east of Granton, had a number of his neighbors assisting him in raising an old barn a few feet from the ground by means of levers. After getting it up a short distance several men went under to adjust some blocks used in the operation, when one of the levers gave way and the barn fell down to its former position, causing the death of an aged man named Mr. Perry who happened to be standing under one of the sills at the time.

SINKING THE HEADS.—We are pleased to notice that the Street Commissioner has got a number of men at work sinking the heads of nails projecting above the sidewalks in various parts of the city.

CRICKET.—The cricket match on the grounds of the Hallmuth Boys' College yesterday between eleven of the Boys and Huron College resulted in a victory for the Boys by 47 runs. The match was very interesting throughout, and was witnessed by a large number of ladies and gentlemen from the city and the college.

ready, it is said, some of the largest and best hotels have been obliged to lower their prices in order to fill their houses.

It is evident from all accounts that the heads of the Vienna people were quite turned at the prospect of the golden harvest they were to reap from the visitors from all parts of the world. They thought people would come to their city with bags of money to spend, and would not mind the prices much. They have already begun to see their mistake, and there is good reason to believe that the whole experience of those who go to Vienna in June or July will be seriously different from that of those who were promptly at hand at the opening
