BOWMANVILLE, APRIL 6th, 1922

LT. COL. McLAUGHLIN IN OTTAWA

Commander of Famous Iron Second (Ottawa Daily Citizen).

Lieut.-Colonel L. T. McLaughlin, C. M. G., D. S. O. and two bars, of Bowmanville, Ont., who was commander of the 2nd Canadian Infantry Battalion in France from May, 1917, until it was demobilized in April, 1919, is in Ottawa for a few days on business and is meeting many of the officers and men who served under him.

The 2nd Battalion was recruited from Ottawa and district and many of those who were with the famous Iron Second, as it is affectionately known, are again residing here and will no doubt be glad to know the colonel is in the city. (He is registered at the New Russell House.)

Col. McLaughlin was given prominent mention in the British and Canadian papers at different times during the war, particularly for his daring leadership during one phase of the Battle of Arras, when during a heavy German counter attack at Upton Wood he personally led his battalion and routed the German forces, which were attacking in strength, and saved the situation, not only for his own unit but for the whole of the front held by the First Canadian Infantry Brigade. But this was only one of several gallant examples shown by the little colonel.

PRETTY SPRING WEDDING

Burnham-Hawkey

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Wednesday afternoon, March 29, when Miss Eva Elizabeth Hawkey, youngest daughter of the late Richard and Mrs. Hawkey, Cobourg, was united in marriage to Mr. George A. Burnham, son of the late W. L. and Mrs. Burnham, Front Road West, and grandson of the Hon. Ass. Burnham. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. John Henderson, and looked very becoming in a gown of pink georgette, and carrying a bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily-of-the-valley. Mr. J. Harry Roberts was groomsmen. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, B. A., pastor of Cobourg Methodist Church. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and valuable presents, among them being a silver tea service from the staff of the local branch of the Dominion Bank, of which she was a valued member for several years. After the wedding luncheon the happy couple left on a trip to Ottawa and Montreal, the bride going away suit being of navy blue, with hat to match, and squirrel fur. On their return they will reside on Front Road West. We join in congratulations with the many friends of the happy couple.—Cobourg Sentinel-Star.

The groom is brother of Mrs. D. J. Gibson, R. R. 4, Bowmanville, and is a very worthy and highly respected young farmer, living on the old Burnham Homestead.

HAMPTON

W. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. W. W. Horn March 21st with a good attendance. After singing and repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison, the secretary called the roll and each member answered with a verse of scripture. Business being disposed of, Mrs. Burns gave a reading on Christian Stewardship; Mrs. Selker read the devotional leaflet; Mrs. W. J. Clemens favored with a solo; Mrs. F. E. Corden led in prayer. Mr. Jones then took charge of the study book several giving short readings. The task in Canada and meeting the challenge was taken up by Mrs. Colwill, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Barron, followed by a discussion. Meeting closed with benediction.

WHY SHOULD I ADVERTISE

A prescient traveller ahead of a circus, called on the owner of a general store, the only merchant in a little town. "Storekeeper," said he, "when the show gets in town we'll have the usual parade. And I want to rent you advertising space during the parade." "Whereabouts?" the storekeeper asked. "On the elephant. He's the greatest thing in the procession. I'll paint your name on each side of the elephant, and there won't be a man or woman for miles around who won't see your ad." There's not one of 'em don't know me already," replied the merchant and what's more, they all trade here. Why should I advertise? I don't need it." The circus man reflected. He looked across the street and felt stumped. He looked up the street and decided that he was stumped. Then, he looked down the street, as far as the church. Then he turned to the storekeeper. "Nice church down there," he said. "How long has that been there?" "Forty years," I guess," said the merchant. "Most everybody around here is member." "That church has been there forty years," said the circus man "and most everybody in the town belongs: AND YET THEY RING THE BELL EVERY SUNDAY MORNING."—New England Printer.
